

Kobi Caspi is a co-founder of Cann10 and serves as its Financial Manager. Mr. Caspi also serves as CFO and Vice President of Shizim. Mr. Caspi has been a CPA since 1984. He earned his BA degree in Economics and Accounting from Tel Aviv University in 1982. Prior to joining Shizim, Mr. Caspi filled several executive positions in large companies in Israel and abroad as CFO and CEO. He has experience managing employees and account departments, auditing financial statements, and working with government and other tax authorities, including preparing management reports and legal regulation procedures.