

Dr. Ofra Benny is the head of The laboratory for Nanomedicine and Tumor Microenvironment at the Institute for Drug Research, School of Pharmacy, and Faculty of Medicine in the Hebrew University. Dr. Benny's lab focuses on cancer research and drug development. Her lab develop novel nanomedicine tools for drug delivery specific for cancer and key components of the tumor microenvironment. Dr. Benny received her B.Sc and P.hD in Biotechnology Engineering from the Technion, and completed her postdoctoral in the leading lab of the late Dr. Judah Folkman, in the Boston Children's Hospital, Harvard Medical School. Dr. Benny has several patents adn publications in targted and oral formulations of drugs.